Chezi Rafaeli, Coldwell Banker, Lists the $32 Million Chicago Trump Tower Penthouse

The 89th-floor penthouse at the Trump Tower has hit the market for $32 million. Chezi Rafaeli, a luxury real estate agent from Coldwell Banker Residential Brokerage's Gold Coast office, has listed a $32 million penthouse residence in the Trump International Hotel & Tower in Chicago. This listing goes on the record as one of the city's most expensive condo listings in history. Some of the properties details include: Located on the 89th floor on the top floor of Trump Tower (which is the tallest residential building in the western hemisphere), the unit is 1,170 feet above ground. At 14,260 square-foot, penthouse comprises the entire floor (the only one of its kind in the building), with five bedrooms, seven baths and floor-to-ceiling windows 16 feet tall that provide panoramic views of the Chicago. With 14 total rooms, the unit includes a media room, exercise room, study, sitting room and gallery. "The combination of a palatial living space and unparalleled views combined with Trump Tower's world-class amenities makes this residence the most desirable place to live in Chicago," Rafaeli said. "This is the first time that a property of this magnitude has ever been available for sale in Chicago."
