

Michigan Avenue

11.12.13

3 Standout Superior Street Properties

November 12, 2013 | by elle eichinger | Pursuits

Tweet3Share0Share1Share0Share4

The Fordham's gorgeous penthouse fuses modern and vintage.

The Penthouse: 25 E. Superior Street unit 5001 occupies the entire 50th floor of the famed Fordham building. It is 6,500 square feet of pure opulence, from the walnut floors to the marble surfaces to the multiple terraces offering gorgeous city views. This unit's defining moment, though, is the master suite, which features a fireplace and sitting area, built-ins, his and hers closets, and rainfall showerheads. $7 million, contact Coldwell Banker agent Chezi Rafaeli at 312-654-4242 or chezi@chezirafaeli.com.

500 W. Superior Street Unit 912 is outfitted with luxury finishes.

The Luxury Condo: Custom designed with luxe finishes from the nearby Merchandise Mart, unit 912 at 500 W. Superior Street is available fully furnished for a totally effortless move. Though it's only on the 9th floor, the building's location allows for sprawling views seen from 10-foot floor-to-ceiling windows throughout. $1.049 million, contact listing agent Nick Libert at 312-493-0920 or visit nicklibert.com.

433 W. Superior Street is a townhome in the heart of the city.

The Townhome: A rare single-family home in the midst of River North, 433 W. Superior Street boasts five bedrooms, four and a half bathrooms, and a media room that will have movie enthusiasts hooked. An elevator connects the home's various stories, all of which are outfitted consistently with gleaming hardwood floors and clean, modern finishes. $2.75 million, contact Koenig & Strey listing agent Sarah Taich at 312-893-3513 or at staich@koenigstrey.com.